

INDEPENDENCE DAY

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY NEWSLETTER

JULY 2024

OUTSTANDING CARE!

Take a moment to read this impressive feedback from a father of a patient about one of our own!

"I commend Nurse Jessica C. for the exceptional care and professionalism she demonstrated in managing a recent challenging situation with a medical provider. Her dedication, compassion, and attention to detail were evident in every interaction, and her ability to navigate this difficult scenario with grace and expertise did not go unnoticed. Jessica's unwavering commitment to providing the highest standard of care ensured that the patient's needs were met with the utmost sensitivity and competence, reflecting the core values of VCU."

Jessica's willingness to go above and beyond expectations has positively impacted the patient and me and has set a remarkable example for her colleagues. Her exceptional work ethic and resilience in the face of adversity have significantly contributed to maintaining a positive and supportive environment within your team. You are incredibly fortunate to have such a talented and dedicated nurse like Jessica, and I am truly grateful for her invaluable contributions. Please recognize and continue to support such an outstanding member of your team."

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

- Minority Mental Health Awareness
- Disability Pride Month
- Panic attack Awareness- July 7th
- Chronic Disease Day- July 20th

Cameron K. Gallagher Mental Health Resource Center presents the inaugural Mental Health and Wellness Community Day in collaboration with community partners

Saturday, July 20, 2024 • 1 – 4 p.m.

Martin Luther King, Jr. Middle School
1000 Mosby Street, Richmond, VA

Live music, food trucks on-site, facepainting, physical and mental wellness activities, and free backpacks (while supplies last). Scan the QR code to sign up for a free backpack.

For questions, contact Amber.Jennings@vcuhealth.org

VCU VOLUNTEERS NEEDED MENTAL HEALTH & WELLNESS COMMUNITY DAY

SATURDAY, JULY 20, 2024
12 - 4 PM

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. MIDDLE SCHOOL
1000 MOSBY STREET, RICHMOND VA

To sign up or for any questions contact
Amber.Jennings@vcuhealth.org or Brittany.fisher@vcuhealth.org

